The College of Fine Arts at Carnegie Mellon celebrates the achievements and talents of graduating seniors in the five schools. We invite you to attend the events listed here and to check with individual schools for additional events being added to the calendar. Contact information for the schools is listed on the reverse.

Founded Art

Found Ed Art links the images on this invitation—"found" images from the Regina Gouger Miller Gallery which hint at the concerns of each of the schools—and "educational art" to be found in the exhibitions, performances, recitals and projects planned during the 2004 Commencement celebrations.

Please join us in marking this important moment for CFA graduating seniors.
