THE PAPER SCULPTURE SHOW

The Paper Sculpture Show is a fully interactive exhibition in which audiences and artists explore the realm between two- and three-dimensional art in a new and inventive way. Visitors actually construct the paper sculptures from sheets printed with the artists' instructions and designs. Twenty nine artists and artist teams are represented, including: Janine Antoni, Francis Cape & Liza Phillips, Minerva Cuevas, The Art Guys, Rachel Harrison, Glenn Ligon, Akiko Sakaizumi, Sarah Sze, Olav Westphalen and Allan Wexler. The public opening for this exhibition is September 9, 2003.

The Paper Sculpture Show is organized by Cabinet magazine, Independent Curators International (ICI,) and SculptureCenter. It is curated by Mary Ceruti, Matt Freedman, and Sina Najafi, and accompanied by The Paper Sculpture Book, which contains the entire exhibition in unassambled, take-home form. The traveling exhibition is organized and circulated by Independent Curators International. The exhibition and its accompanying publication are made possible, in part, by support from the Peter Norton Family Foundation.
